

THE BELLINGS

APRIL, 1987

PUGET SOUND PHOTOGRAPHIC COLLECTOR'S SOCIETY, INC.

VOL. VIII, NO. 8

I'LL SHOW MINE IF YOU SHOW YOURS

The Puget Sound Photographic Collectors will meet at Auburn Public Library, 808 9th S.E. at 7:30 pm on Thursday, May 21st. The program will feature YOU and the recent Show & Sale at Kent Commons. We want to hear stories of the Show, good and bad and/or interesting. Also bring the treasures you got and tell us of the terrific price or how you got taken. Bring and Brag! The items that didn't sell maybe will sell after the meeting, so mark down the prices and toss 'em in the trunk for sale, swap or trade.

CALORIES & CAFFEINE: Rolf Giertsen will provide the beverage and cups for this meeting. Ed Jernberg volunteered to supply the goodies. Thank you both!

SPOTLIGHT: The spotlight this month will shine on new member Lloyd Wright. Lloyd will give us a short history of his life and tell us about his camera collecting career and how he got interested in such a pasttime.

DEBRIEFING OF THE MAY SHOW

The Camera Sale, Show & Swap on May 9th at Kent Commons was considered a success by just about everyone. Although the advertising budget was increased and more time and effort was expended to get out the "word" the hot weather and parking difficulty seemed to contribute to the attendance being the same as last year; about 1200. Lots of money and cameras changed hands and that's what it is all about. Marlene needs to know if you are aware of any thievery at the Show. The security company is working on a plan to foil "light fingers" but we need to know the incidents. A complete Show Report will be given by Chairman Gary Sivertsen and his committee.
